Juniata Reflects . . . . . .

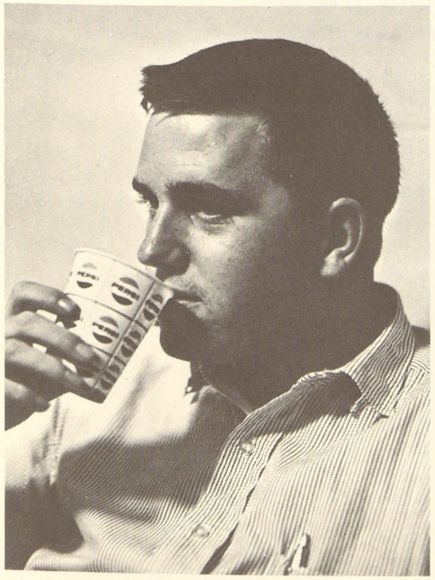

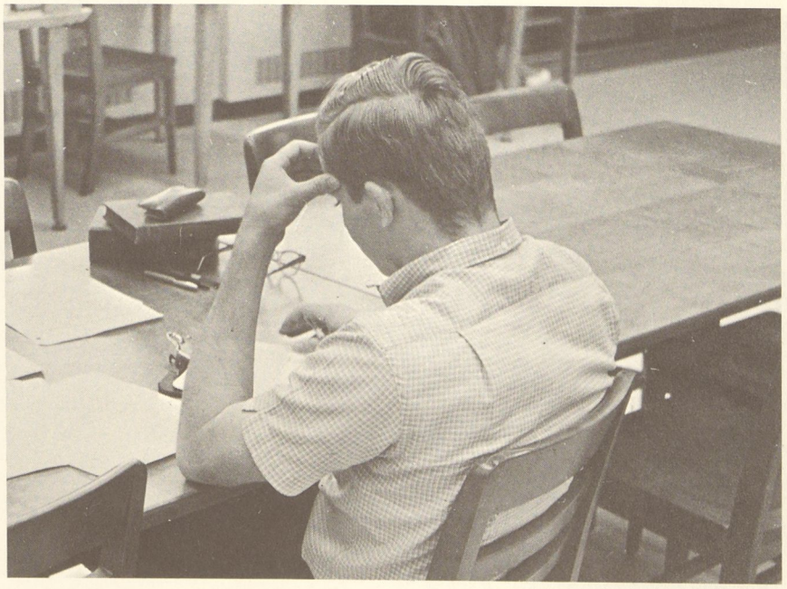

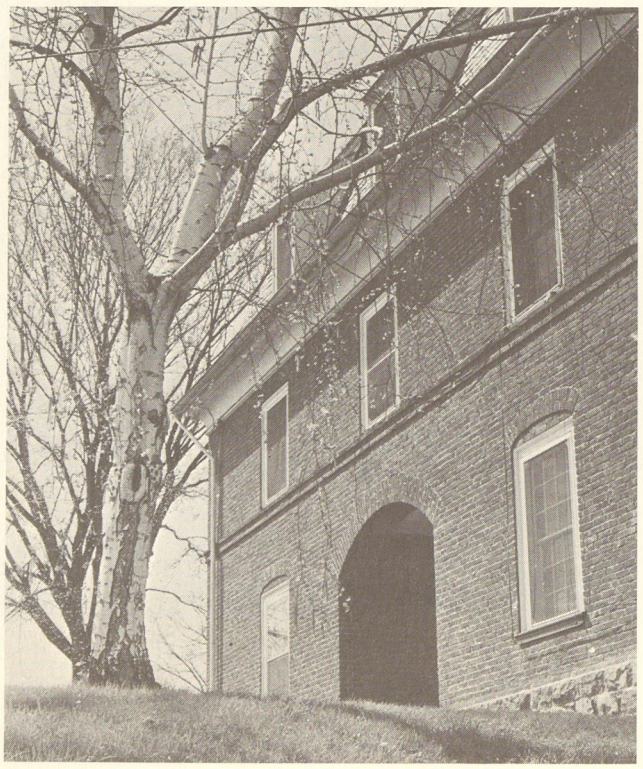

A year at Juniata holds much. The Alfarata is but a cloudy reflection of the study, laughter, disappointment, action, thought, and more that fill the nine months of life at J. C.

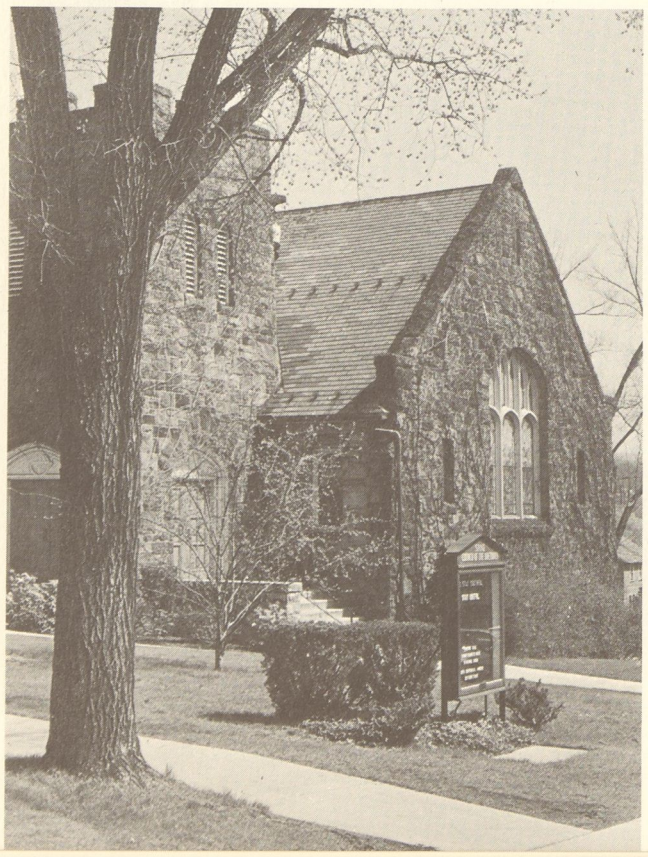

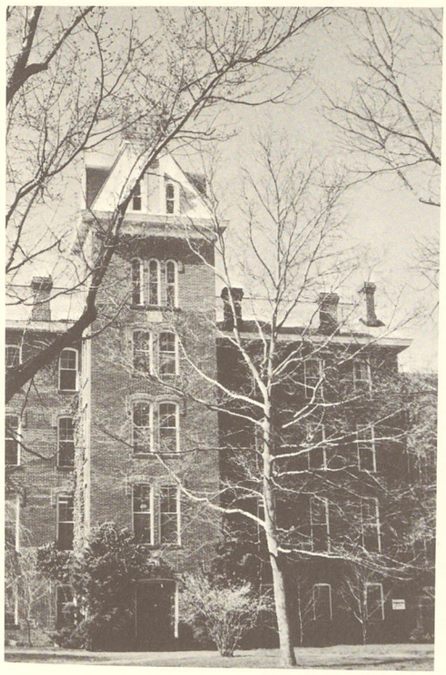

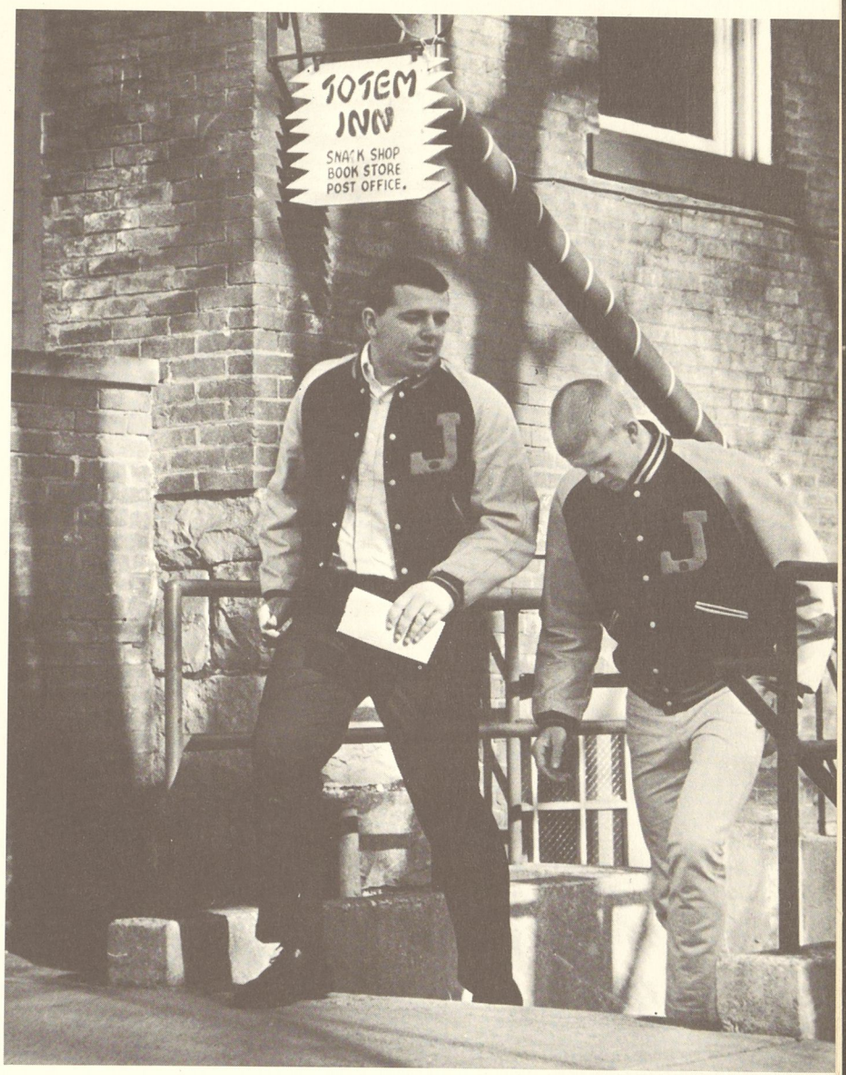

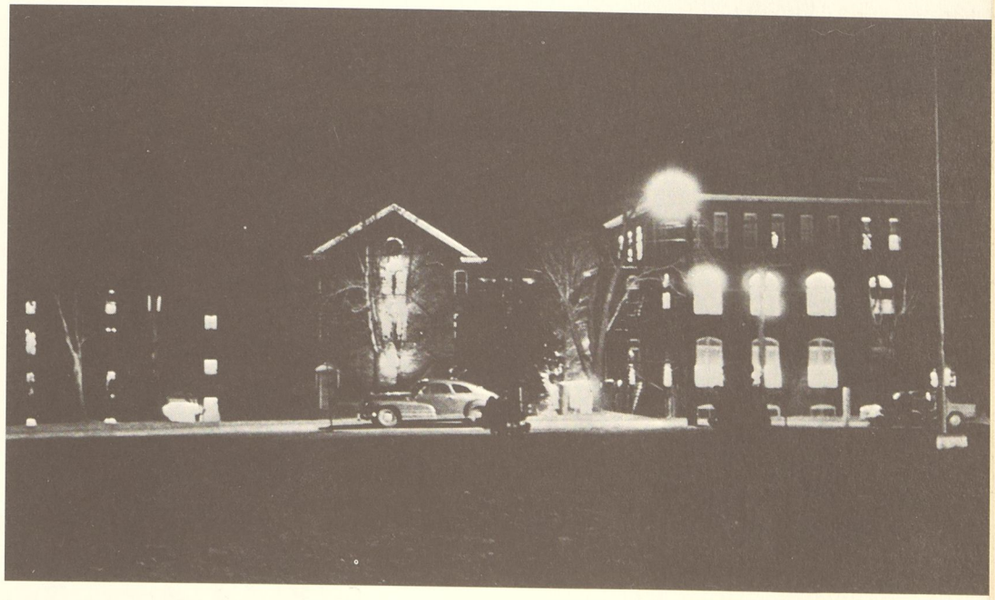

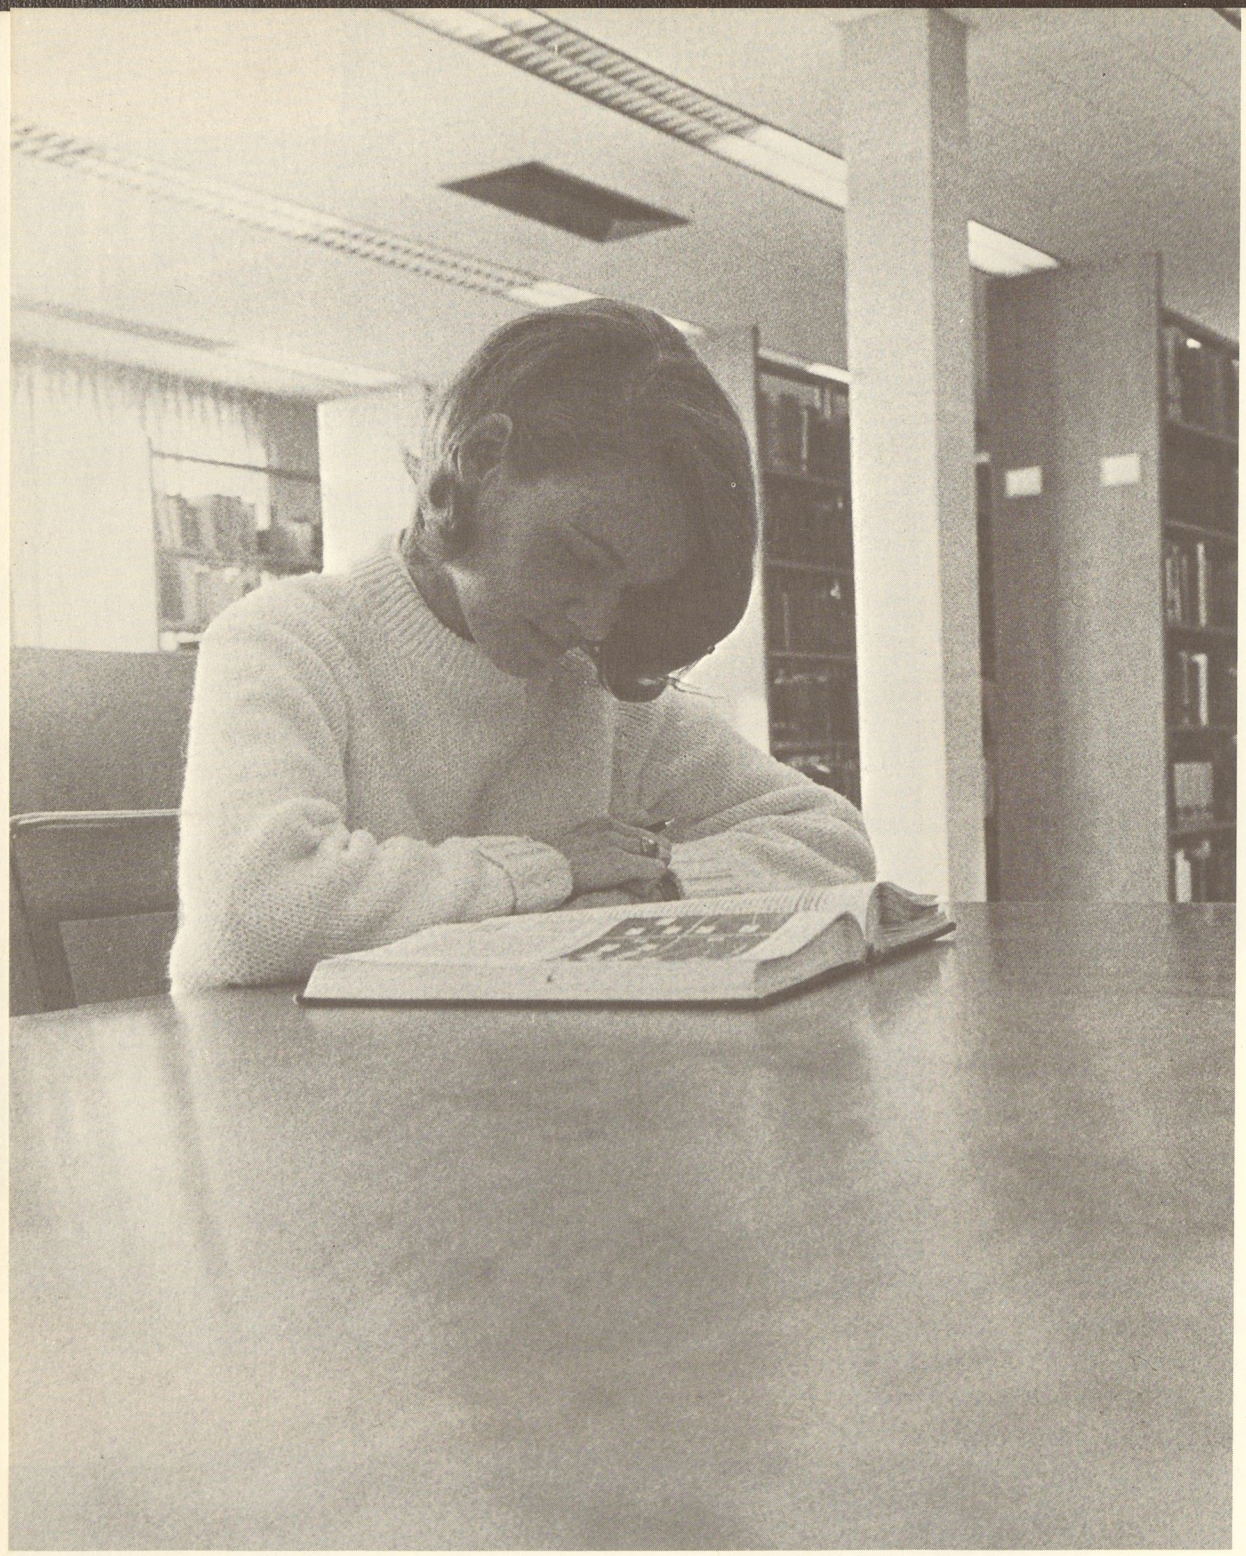

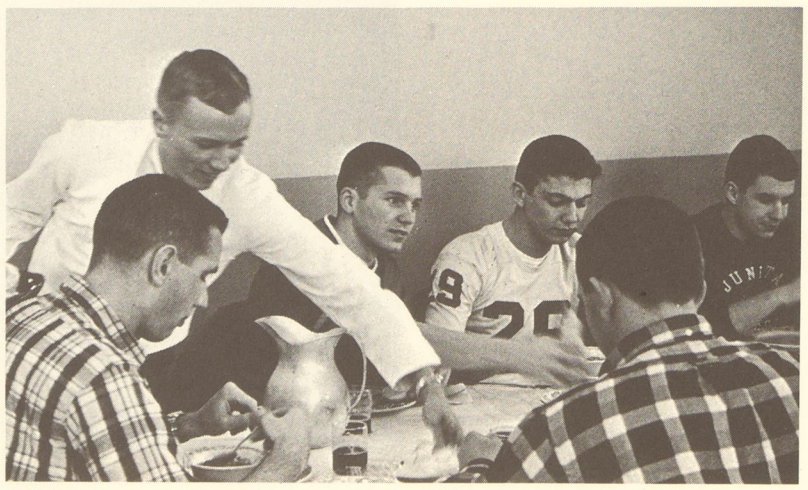

The campus is the meeting ground for ideas and for personalities. Out of chance and intended encounters come the excitement and tension that result in an education.

The activities of an education that develops the whole person are many and varied. From the lab to the laundry, students are ever busy pursuing their individual goals.

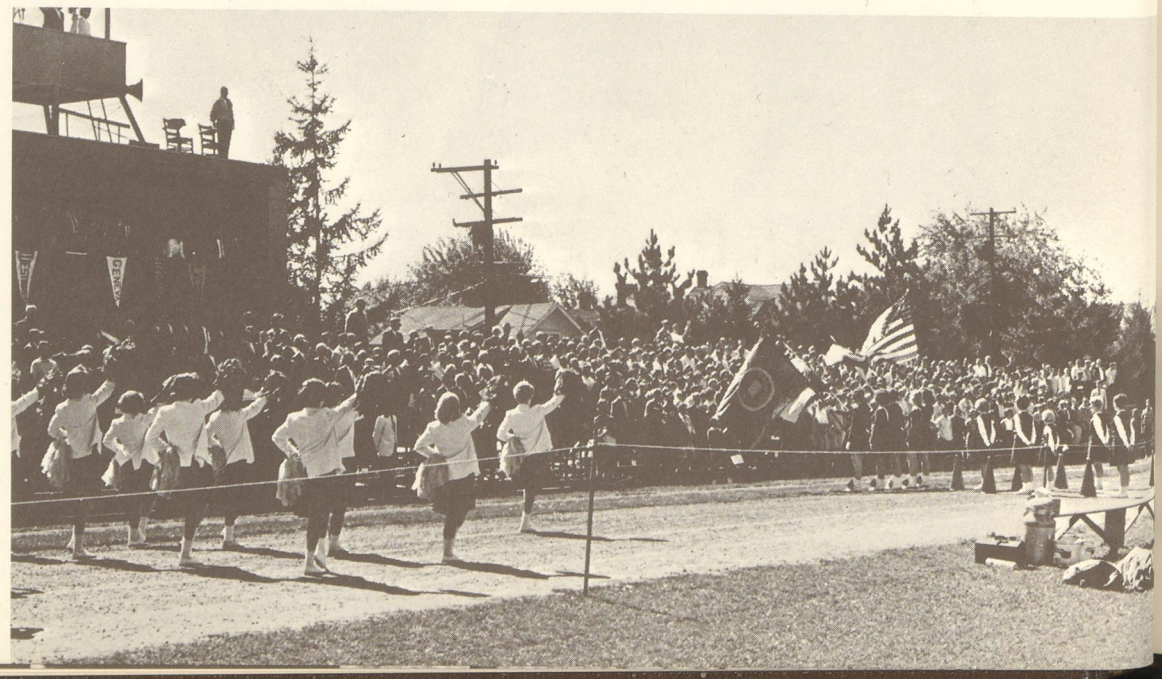

And from time to time the bizarre breaks into the routine of Juniata, and the tension of existence relaxes momentarily.

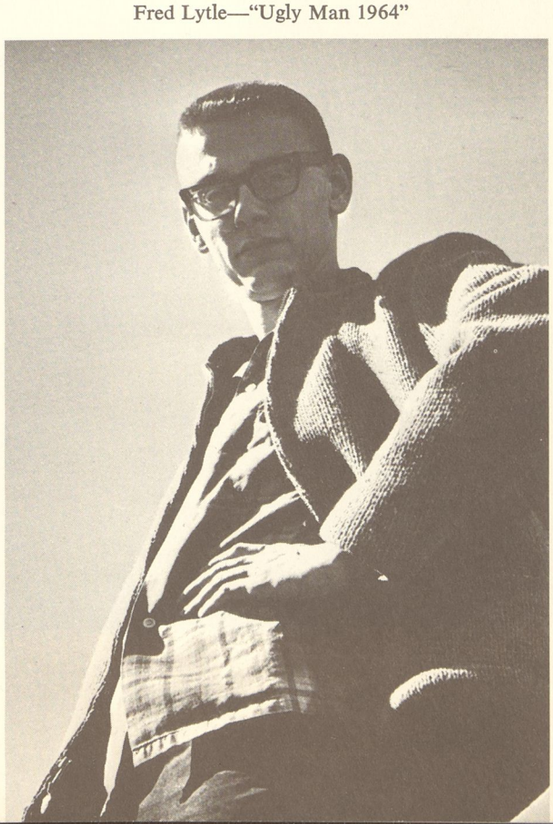

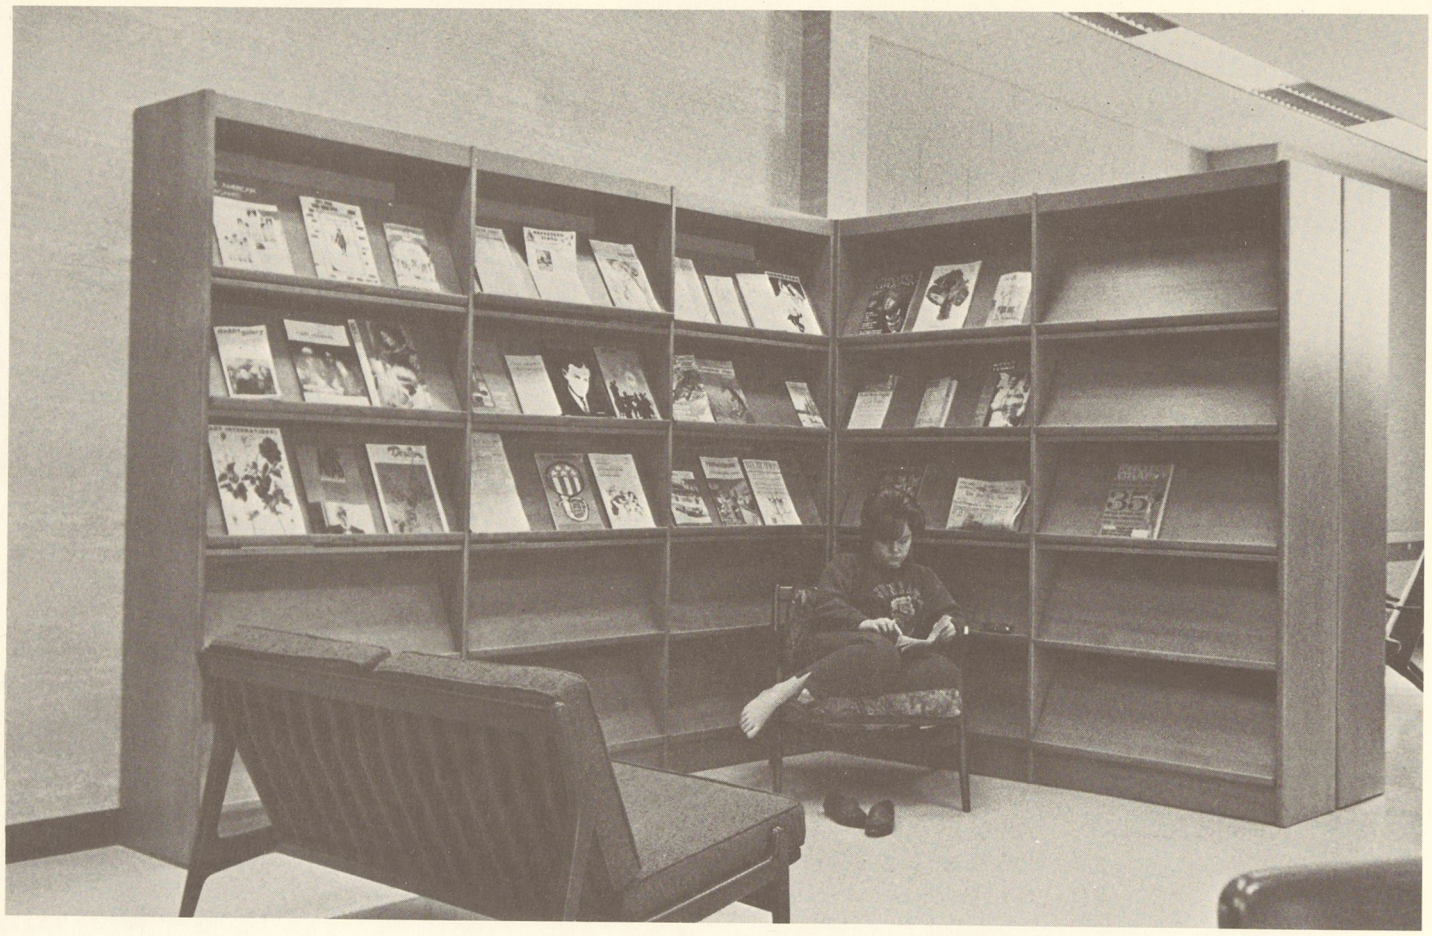

The pure enjoyment of doing things together molds close bonds of friendship and gives a needed change from the more sombre tasks of studying.

Fred Lytle—"Ugly Man 1964"

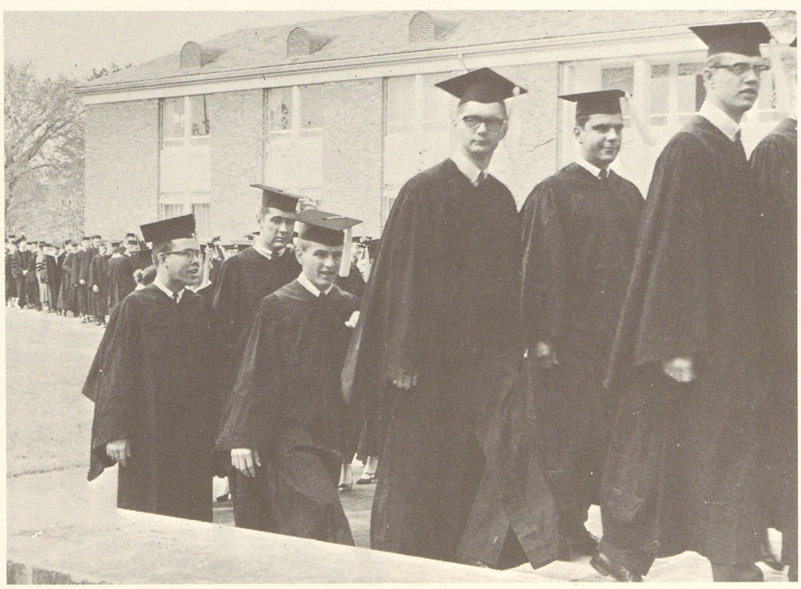

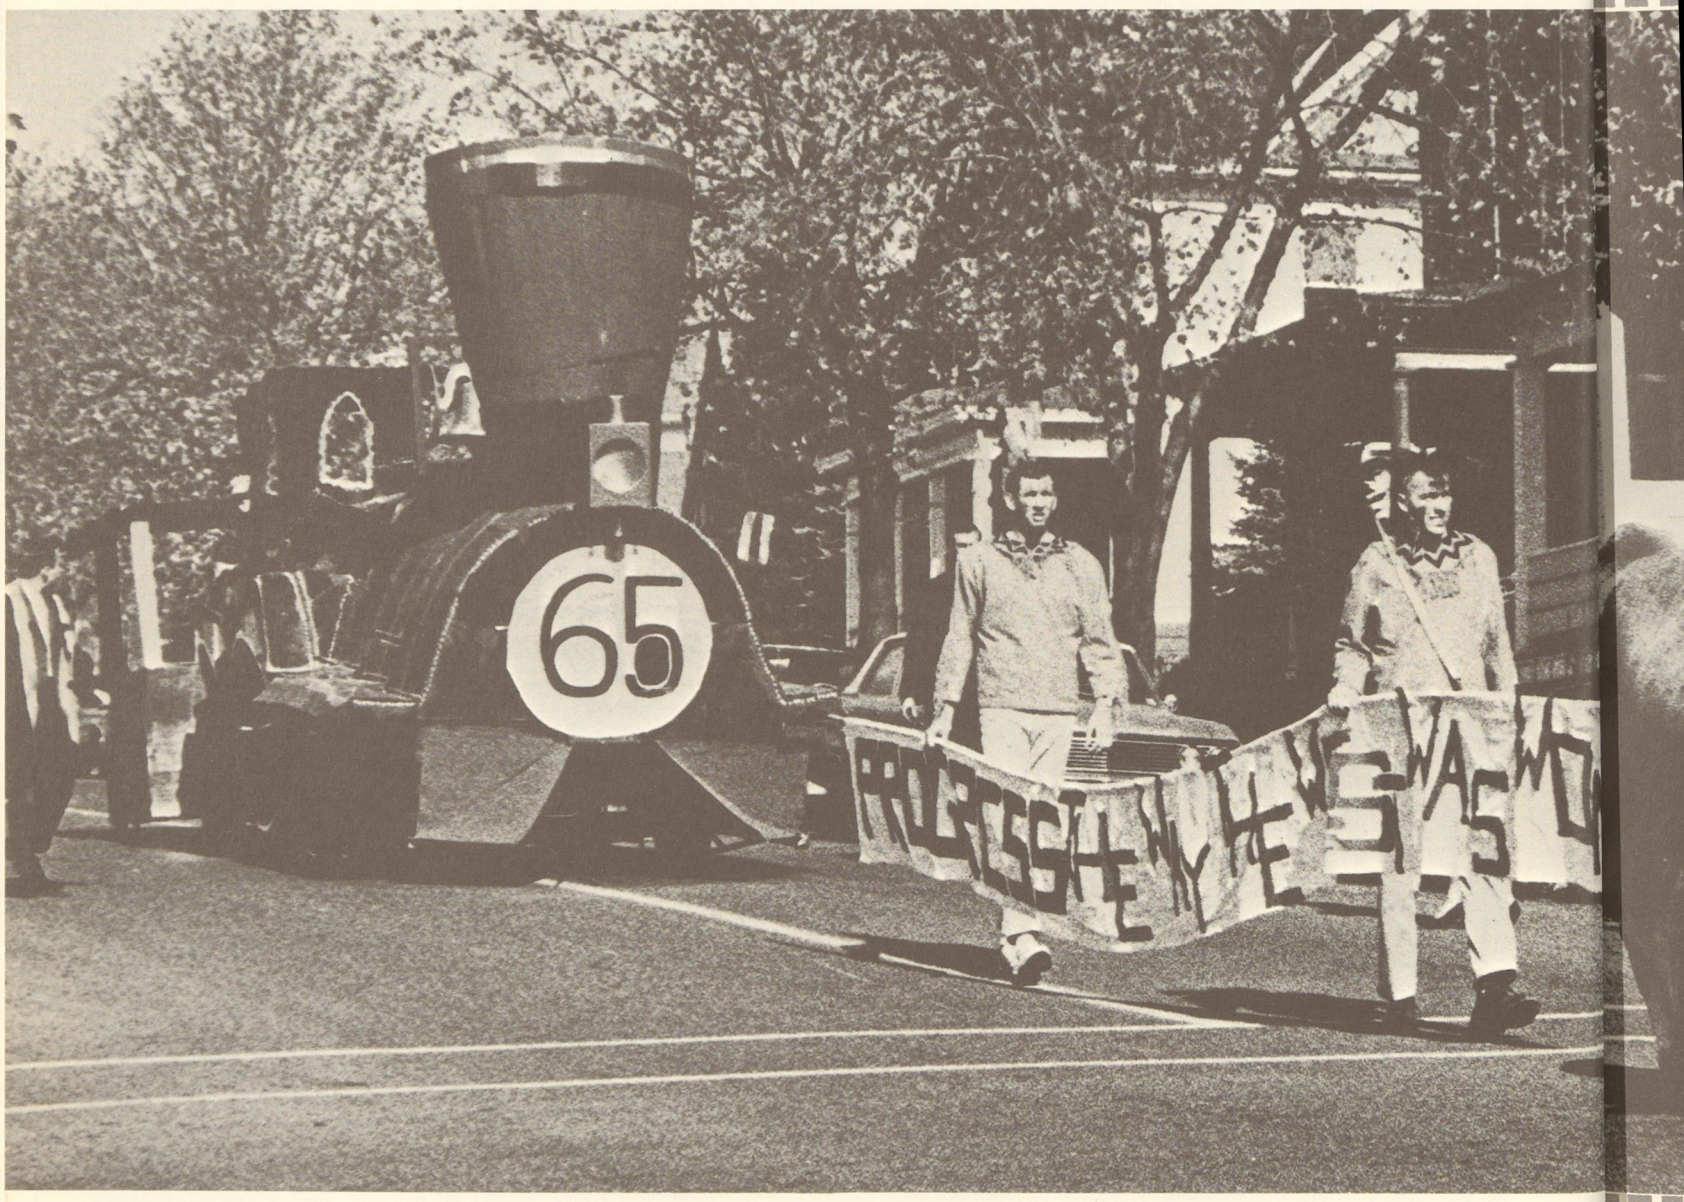

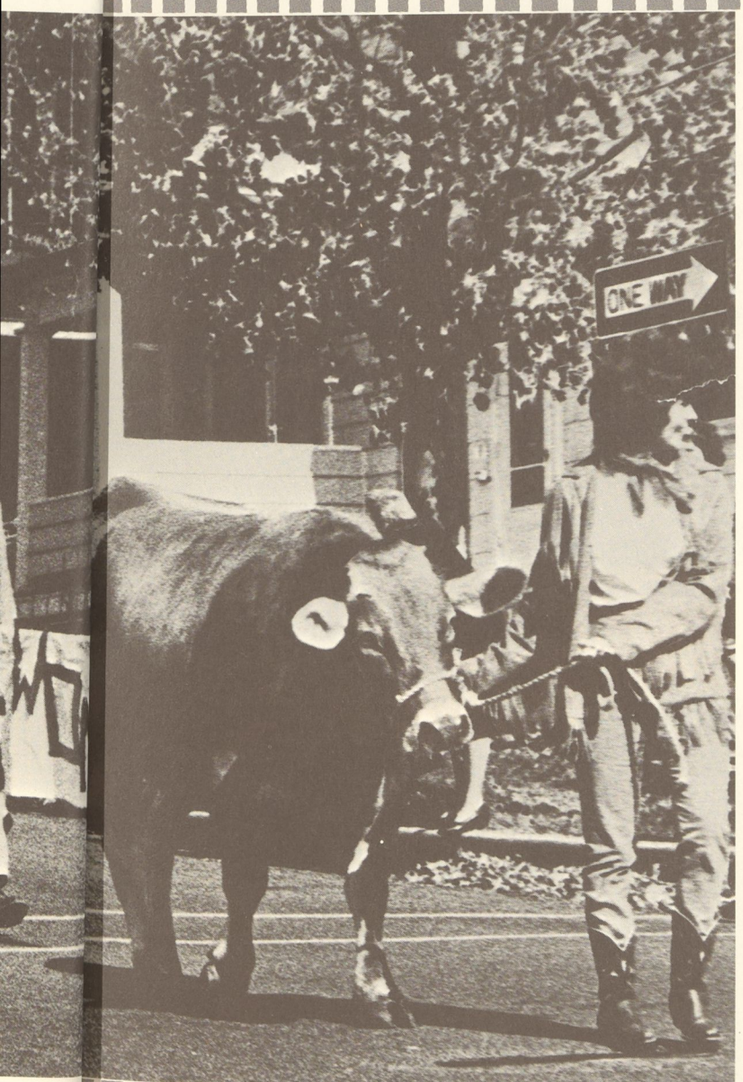

A year at Juniata comes to an end in different ways for different students. But it is each year's seniors that feel the nostalgia of parting most as the notes of "Pomp and Circumstance" send them out into the world.

Mid-Winter Formal

The theme of this year's Mid-Winter Formal, sponsored by the Underclassman Committee, transformed Memorial Gym into the brimstone blaze of Dante's inferno. "Across the River Styx" visitors danced, at the foot of a smoking volcano, to the music of Duke Morris and his band. In the red glow of fiery lighting effects, dancers could see colorful murals depicting punishments of the various circles of Hell. During the intermission, Steve Engle's New Century Singers presented a short concert after which refreshments were served in the Elysian Fields on the mezzanine.

Feverish planning, excellent class participation, and intense competition of All Class Night-1965 resulted in the closest inter-class race Juniata has witnessed in years. The theme was "Comedy" and the object was to beat the seniors, already two-time winners of the event. The spirited sophomores began with a clever, Western "All's Well That Ends" featuring subtle puns and Shakespearean dialogue. The determined juniors followed with their unusual "Robbing Hood Takes a Break or A Sheik in the Deep is Worth Two in the Dunes," concentrating their humor in unexpected reversals. Unlike most freshmen classes, ours did an outstanding job in their hilarious, slapstick satire of Juniata life "Froshenella." Finally, the seniors spun their tale of "Goldspinner." Though based on the traditional Rumpelstiltskin plot, professional touches to acting, costumes, and scenery proved too much for the younger classes. Proud and triumphant, the Class of '65 won their third dramatic contest, retiring the silver trophy for the first time in the school's history.

Football

After a rugged season against such top foes as Gettysburg, Susquehanna, and Westminster, Fred Prender's Juniata football squad had to settle for a somewhat disappointing 4-4 record. The team this past season was led by two capable co-captains, Barry Broadwater and Duane Ruble.

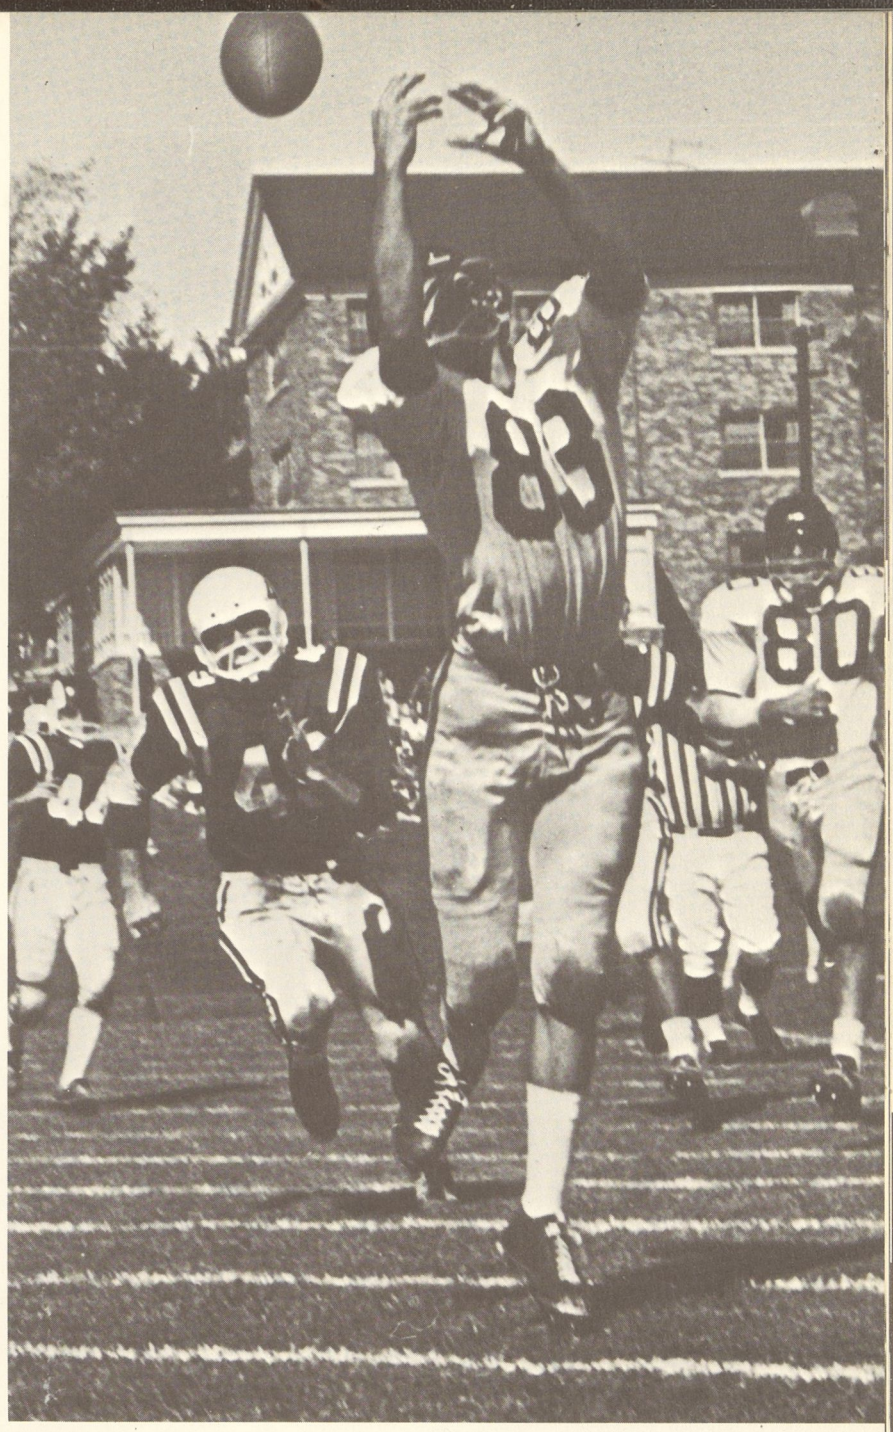

In the four games which they won the team played tough defensive football, typical of a Juniata squad. Gary Sheppard took charge at quarterback for the last four games after first string quarterback Jim Sutton was lost due to a knee injury suffered at Geneva. Broadwater once again led the rushing attack while Don Corle set new records with his kicking. Although the team was soundly beaten in three of their four defeats, they never gave up and played superlative ball in these contests.

The team reported to practice back in mid-September with a nucleus of fourteen returning lettermen (twenty-two upperclassmen overall) and thirty-four unseasoned freshmen and a rough schedule ahead. During the first couple weeks two practices a day were held. There were times throughout these tough practices when players collapsed from exhaustion, indicative of the strenuous routine a Juniata football player must endure. By the time the season rolled around the players were ready both physically and mentally for the season ahead.

As is always the case, the Indians lost players through graduation in 1964-65. These boys all played key roles and their absence will be noticed. The seven Seniors include Barry Broadwater (pictured on the opposite page), Duane Ruble, John Lersch, Ed Fleck, Terry Blue, Don Corle, and Jeff Treese. Their loss will leave some valuable positions to be filled by the upcoming underclassmen. Next year, however, Juniata's team expects some twenty returning lettermen, including co-captains Tom Snyder and Gary Sheppard. Under the direction of Coach Prender, his assistants, and the co-captains, Juniata College can look forward to another exciting and successful football team in 1965.

Wrestling

The 1964-65 wrestling team was the most successful in the college's young grappling history, posting a 7-3 record.

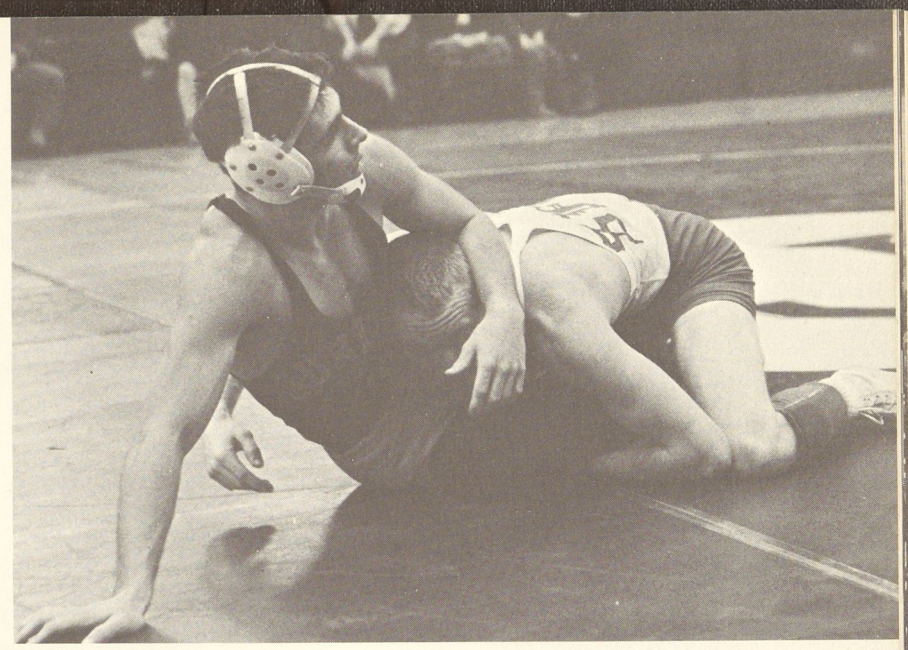

Led by captain Duane Ruble, the wrestlers notched six of their seven wins in consecutive victories: over St. Francis, Albright, Lebanon Valley, Dickinson, Elizabethtown and Indiana. They also hammered St. Vincent 28-5. Their losses came at the hands of Gettysburg, Lycoming and Shippensburg.

This year's wrestling team was strong not only in the higher weights but in overall balance, as it registered a 7-3 log. Senior Duane Ruble, four-year letterman, led the team in points with 45, winning nine matches by falls. He did well at the MAC meet, as did freshman Phil Eatough, sophomores Dick Fiegles and Jack Civitts, and the most improved wrestler on the team, junior Galen "Shorty" Dively. Other wrestlers that stood out this year were freshmen Chris Sherk, Don Hoover, Vic Arrington, Bob Butz, and junior Bob Klug.

Only two men will be lost by graduation, Duane Ruble and Tom Paxson. With the return of the experienced underclassmen, next year's team should be even better than this year's winning team.

Cross Country

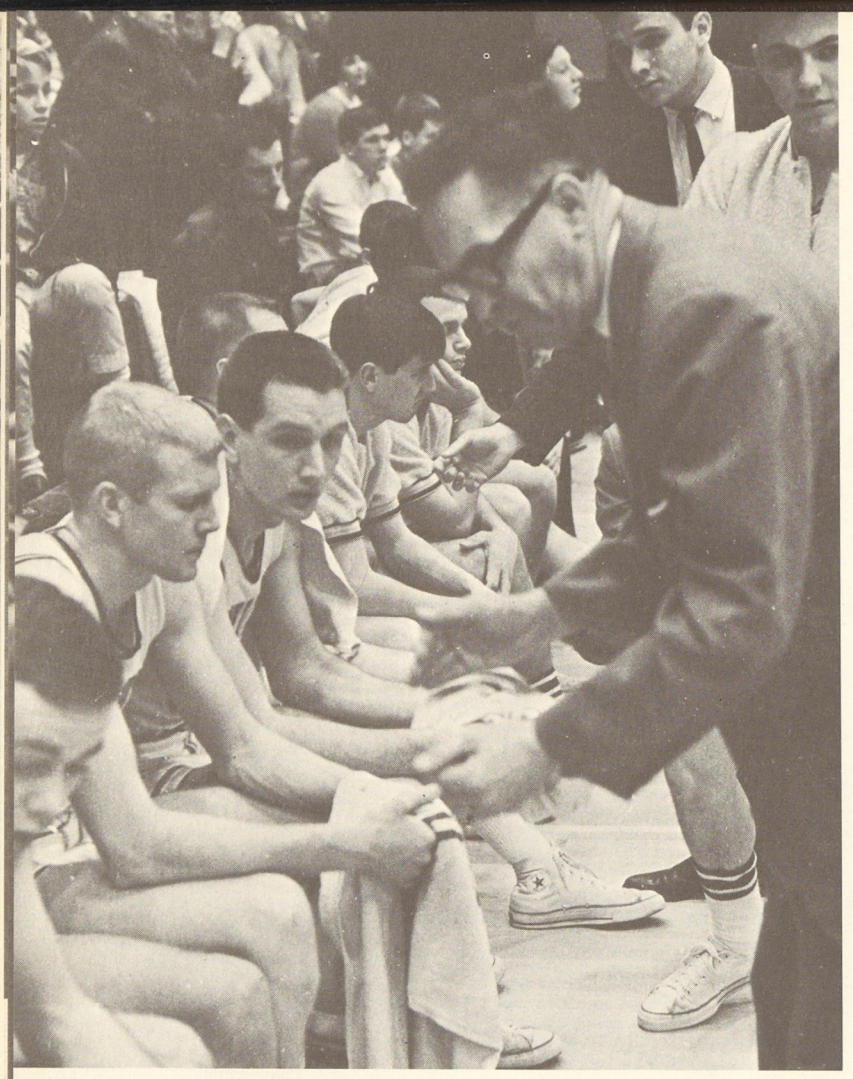

The seemingly inevitable happened for Coach Mike Snider's cross country teams. This was his first losing season as the 1964 team won two and lost seven in a year of rebuilding. Earl Samuel was the lone returning letterman.

Samuel placed first in eight of nine dual meets, broke the old course record against E-Town, and then placed second in the MACs to finish his career at Juniata. Number two man for the Tribe was freshman Jim Massingham, followed by freshman Tom Berkley. Both showed continued improvement all season and will be counted on heavily next year. Nick Hudak and Dave Phillips, both juniors and next year's co-captains, placed fourth and fifth most of the season. The two other seniors, in addition to Samuel, were Jeff Johnson and Rich Bradway.

The outlook for next year's season appears brighter. With most of the team being underclassmen, 1965 could start the harriers on their winning way again.

Samuel takes the lead as the race begins with Albright.

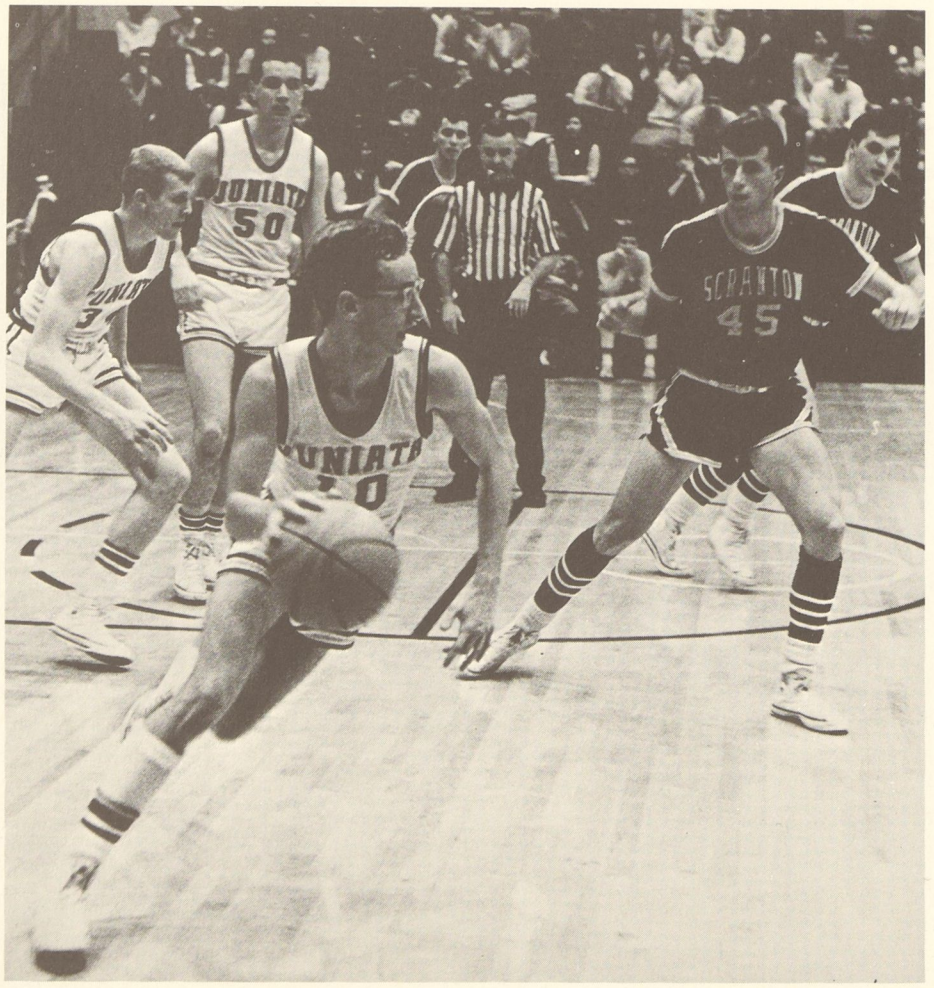

Starting five takes break in final minutes.

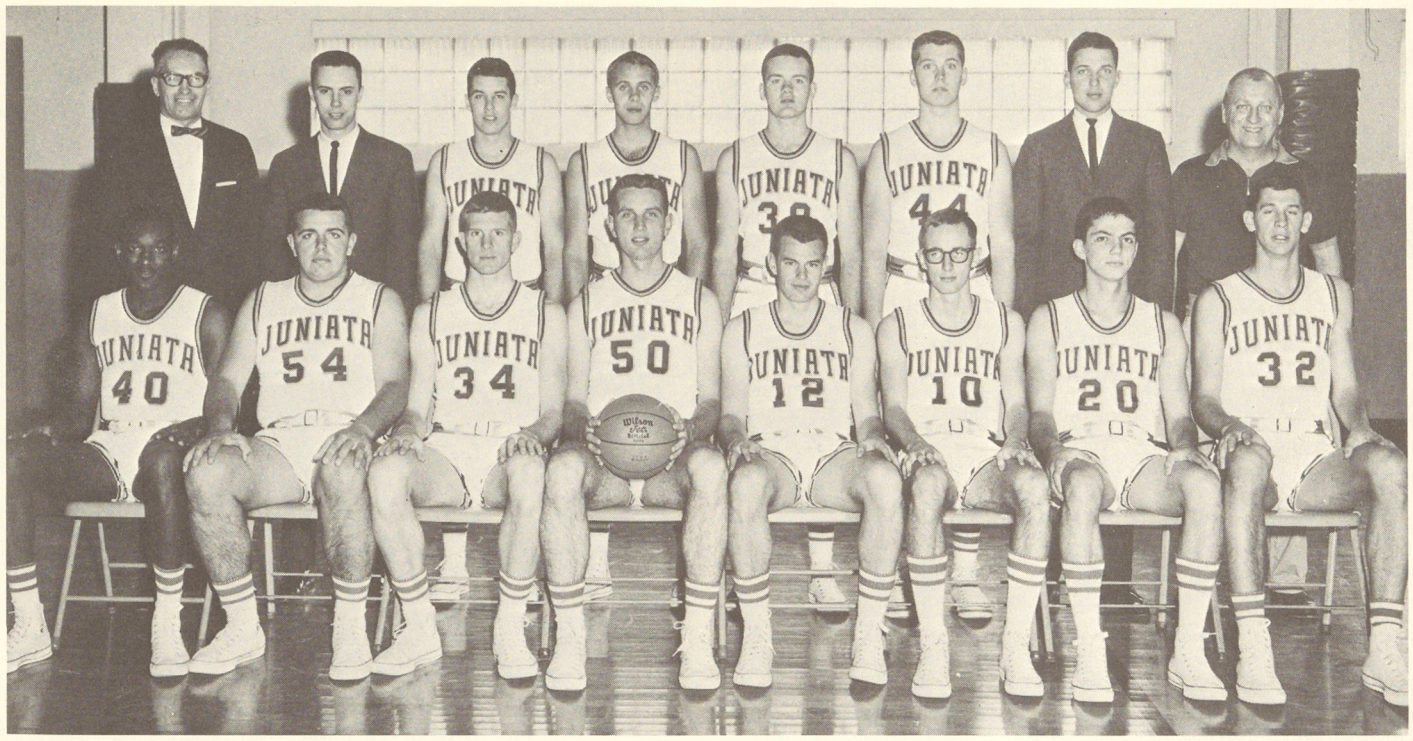

Basketball

Despite upset wins over Kutztown, Shippensburg, and Scranton, the 1964-65 varsity basketball team finished the season with an 8-11 log. The Indians played several close games, winning three in overtime against Lock Haven, Franklin & Marshall, and Kutztown and losing 63-65 to Rutgers (South Jersey). At the Bridgewater (Va.) Rotary Tournament, the Indians were beaten by Guilford and Davis-Elkins.

Coach Ralph Harden will lose four senior lettermen: Mock, Robuck, Jack Haskell and Don Engle. With five returning lettermen (Kenyon, Williams, Pascale, Doyle, Baldwin), however, and several upcoming freshmen from the winning junior varisty next year could be one of Juniata's best on the basketball court. Coach Pat Frazier's Little Indians netted an 8-5 record.

Senior captain Chuck Robuck led in rebounding with 236 in 19 games for a 12.2 average. Mock led the team in scoring with 287 points for a 15.1 average per game and was second in rebounds with 233. Frosh Clair Kenyon's 163 points in 15 games gave him a 10.9 game average tied with Robuck who scored 208 points in 19 games. Frosh Bill Williams was third in rebounds with 157 and fourth in scoring with 177 points in 18 games for a 9.8 game average.

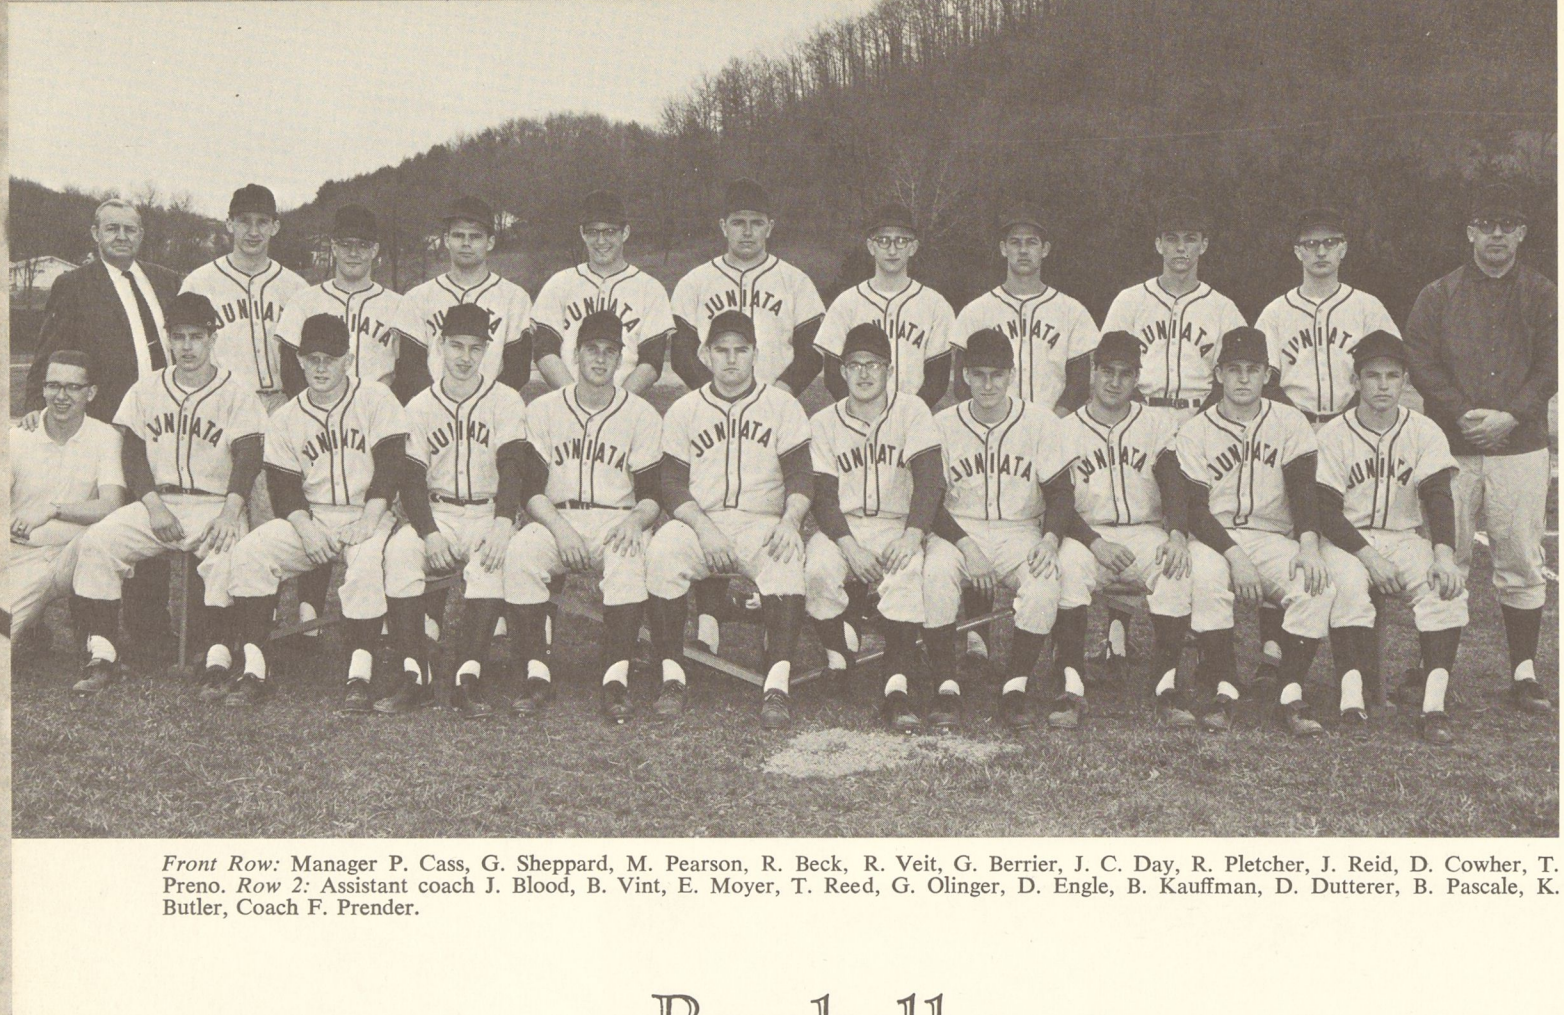

Team totals showed Juniata scoring 1315 points for the season as against the opponents' 1393 points. The percentage of free throws made by the Indians was higher than their opponents: 68.1 to 62.9.

Baseball

Grey Berrier begins another trip around the bases.

The 1964 season emerged as one of the best for Juniata. Fred Prender, in his first year as head coach, took the team and molded it into an MAC Title competitor. Juniata started off showing great power at the plate, crushing the first few opponents. However, the first loss came at the hands of Indiana State College, but the persistent Indians bounced back and had title hopes in their eyes, until that bleak day in May that they lost a double-header to Elizabethtown. The season was still very successful with a 10-3 record overall.

The successful season was due to a team effort. The leadership of the seniors Grey Berrier, J. C. Day, Ron Veit, and Randy Pletcher kept the team going. The strong hitting of Gary Sheppard and Denny Cowher, the strong arm of Tom Preno, cutting down men at the plate, and the good pitching of Don Engle, Rich Beck, and Bill Kauffman combined to compile the 10-3 record.

As Berrier awaits the pitch, Moyer edges off third.

Juniata's baseball team will be minus five regular ballplayers in 1965. The loss of these men—Berrier, Veit, Beck, Pletcher, and Day—is enough to hurt any team. But returning with experience is Gary Sheppard, Tom Preno, Denny Cowher, Jim Reid, Don Engle, and Bill Kauffman. Maybe with a good freshmen stock and some pleasant surprises from a few upperclassmen, that MAC Title will come our way this year.

Tennis

The 1964 Tennis Team, headed by Coach Ernest Post and Captain Terry Grove, showed a new spirit of team play that paid off in a winning record. Five of the six starters were returning players, anxious to improve upon the 1-10 performance of 1963. The men felt free to advise and to be advised by others in improving technique, and for the first time took the field together at every match.

Larry Bieber, the only Freshman to make the starting six, defeated every opponent except at Dickinson, enroute to a 9-1 record. His aggressive net play and steady ground game advanced him from number 4 to 1 on the team ladder, and he capped a remarkable season by accepting the C. N. Ellis Tennis award for outstanding team play at the sports banquet.

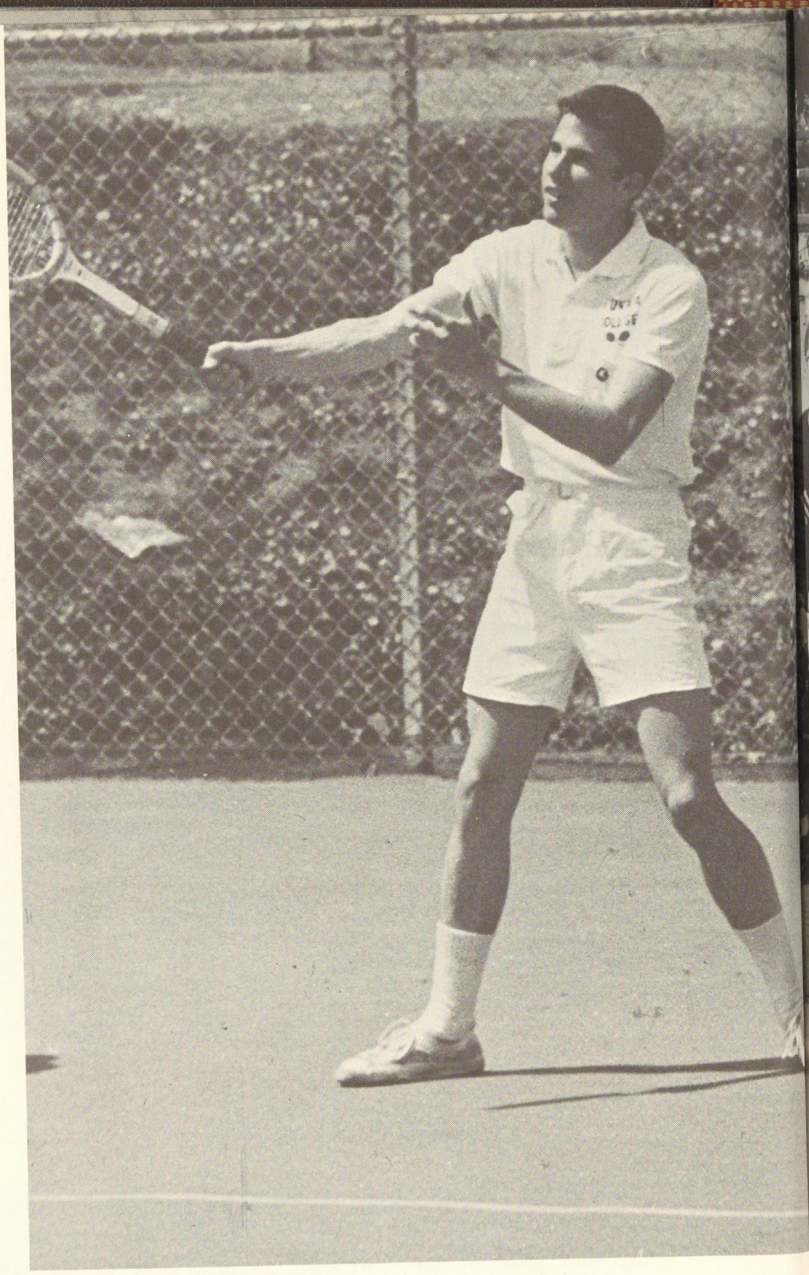

The returning regulars were Dave Rodenbough, Neale Clopper, Jess Wright, and John Fair, all Juniors. Terry Grove was the only Senior in the group. Each one was highly improved over the previous year; and, as the records show, each played an important role in the 7-4 campaign. John Katonah, Jim Dinger, Paul Hertzler, Dan Kobasa, John Garrett, and Steve Herr completed the squad.

Track

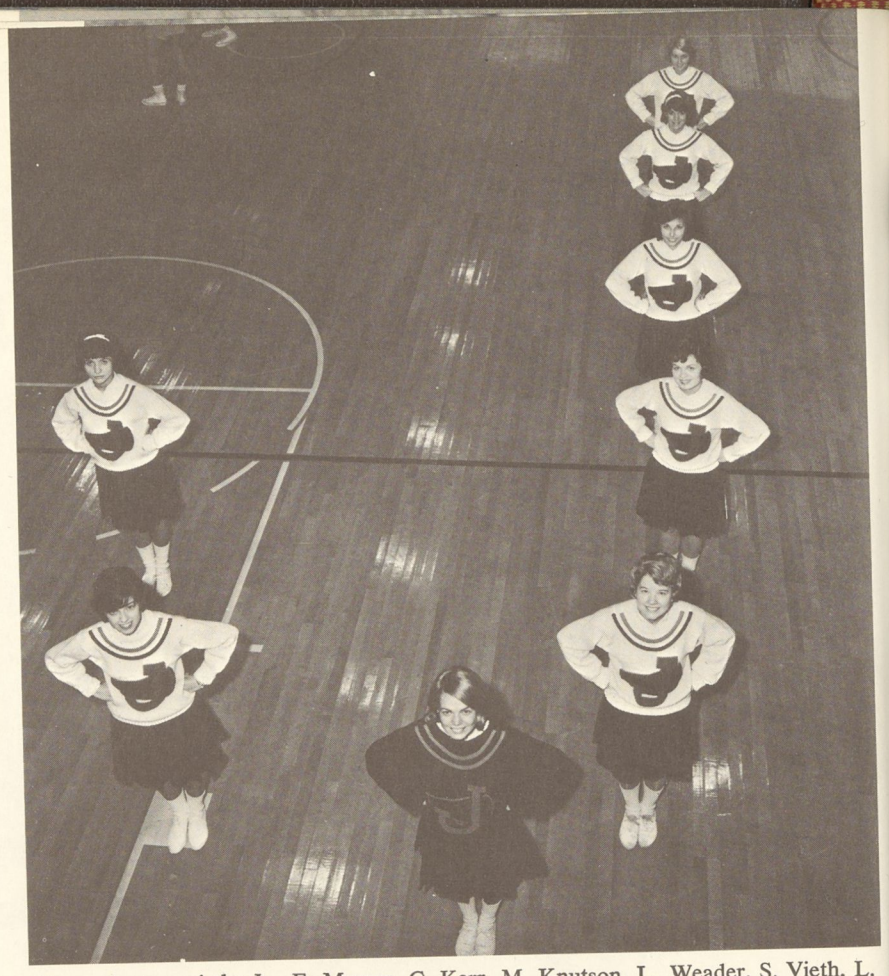

The Middle Atlantic Conference Track and Field finals were held at Swathmore College last year and represented the peak of the season. Captain Earl Samuel, a junior, won the two-mile run in record breaking time. It may be appropriate to add that Samuel in addition to winning in the MAC's was high scorer for the season with 67 points. Craig Satterlee and Bill Holland made formidable showings, also, as they too placed high in the MAC tournament. Coach Mike Snider was pleased with the performance of hurdler, Paul "Swede" Larson and freshman javelin thrower "Bo" Berlanda.

It is easy to see why Coach Snider and the Juniata fans can look forward to a successful track and field season in 1965.

G. Howard, B. Klug, R. Bell, J. Sutton, D. David, B. Alexander.

Golf

Juniata again had a poor season in golf during 1964, displaying a 1-8 record. There were sufficient matches won however, to allow six golfers to earn their letters. This means that we will have a team with five returning lettermen and at least three other men with varsity experience under their belts. The present Freshman Class shows promise with several outstanding prospects. The majority of the 1964 team are now sophomores including the winner of the outstanding Juniata golfer award, Jim Sutton. With the experience gained in the past season, we can expect much improved play and poise from Sutton and his cohorts Russ Bell, Bob Klug, and Dan David. Juniata College golf teams were once the class of the MAC, why shouldn't they return to this position in 1965? With experience and some good breaks maybe they will.

Alfarata

Perhaps the most "human" of all Juniata's publications is the annual, student-produced ALFARATA. More than a record, more than a reference, the yearbook is concerned with the general moods, specific emotions, and individual personalities of the students on the college campus. Aided this year by Miss Lillian Junas, assistant director of public information, the staff has worked closely with Barger Studios and Foote and Davies Publishing Company to present an accurate picture of the life and atmosphere on College Hill, all the influences which have made our students part of a new and changing Juniata. Evolved around the theme of "Personal Reflections," the book itself has been specifically designed to stir a vivid recollection of the college year 1964-1965, a year unique in itself, and a special segment in the life of graduating seniors.

The Juniatian

The JUNIATIAN, operated entirely under student direction, publishes a four-page weekly paper except during exam periods. It has a circulation of approximately 1800 including students, parents, and alumni. The purpose of this campus publication is to furnish its readers with an account of events at Juniata as well as to serve as a voice of the students on current, national and international events. The JUNIATIAN is a member of the Associated Collegiate Press and receives bi-annual evaluations. This year several of its staff members attended a news conference in Harrisburg given by the governor expressly for collegiate journalists.

Kvasir

Kvasir, Juniata's literary magazine, reflects what seems to be an increasing interest in creative writing among the students, in some measure sparked by the program of Residencies in the Arts. It is a relatively new publication, replacing the old "Voice", and annually publishes poetry, criticism, and short stories written by students.

Pronounced va-zer, Kvasir is named after what is best described as the poetic muse of Norse mythology. On the first level, the magazine's purpose is to provide those who wish their work published with a medium for doing so, and thus to some extent is a measure of the creative interest and capacity of the student body where writing is concerned. Its most important purpose, however, is to be nothing more than a magazine, providing its readers with entertainment, enlightenment, and stimulation, all coming not from the association of the reader with his fellow student the author, but, hopefully, from the quality of the works themselves.

Tomahawk

The TOMAHAWK is the basketball program published by the J-Club. Its purpose is to acquaint fans with the basketball team and with the progress of the team. Included in the program are pictures of the varsity basketball team, the junior varsity basketball team, the varsity wrestling team, and the cheerleaders with corresponding write-ups on each. The TOMAHAWK staff also sponsors Winter Sports Day during the season, on a Saturday when the wrestling team and both basketball teams are at home. In addition, the TOMAHAWK tries to keep fans abreast with the team leaders, statistically. The INDIAN is the corresponding J-Club publication for football.

WJC-Radio

WJC, campus radio station at Juniata, operates six nights a week with a balanced schedule of popular music, folk music, classical, and jazz. Late world and national news is presented twice nightly. This year the station continued the upgrading of its equipment and its facilities in order to better serve the student body. Interviews with campus personalities, programs of cultural interest, and special programs in conjunction with the Great Epochs course were also initiated in the second semester. The station staff looks forward to the construction of the new student center where better physical facilities for the station will be provided.

SENATE OFFICERS: John Fair, treasurer; Joe Weaver, president; Andy Adede, vice-president; Sue Vieth, secretary.

The student Senate is the co-ordinating body for all the various aspects of student activities. In addition to the four officers, chairmen are elected by the student body each spring to represent nine specific areas of campus life. Each of these chairs, through subordinate committees, manages those matters under its auspices.

The 1964-1965 Senate completed a revision of the distribution of its funds to campus organizations, drafted "Senate Suggestions to the Faculty" concerning possible improvements in faculty-student communication in the area of course structure and teaching methods, and worked continually for improvements in the Totem Inn situation.

Athletic Committee

One of the busiest committees of the Senate is the Athletic Committee. The committee functions as the co-ordinator of all Intramural Athletic activities on campus. Its purpose is to get as many students and faculty as possible to participate in the programs and to carry out these programs efficiently. This year, more players than ever before participated in football, basketball, co-ed volleyball, softball, bowling, the Interclass Track Meet, and other IM sports. An expanded and more efficient program and increased enthusiasm was achieved by this year's Athletic Committee

Education Committee

The Educational Activities Committee with the Chairman of Educational Activities is the link between the student body and the faculty concerning academic affairs. This Committee works closely with the Dean of the College in striving to establish better communication between the faculty and students and stronger student faculty relationships. This year the committee sponsored a student-faculty seminar on the presidential election, and with the help of the Senate compiled a list of suggestions by the students to aid both professor and students in the classroom. The committee also continued the Proctoring Bureau and the Freshman Academic Aid Program.

General Activities Committee

In an attempt to carry out the traditions and special week ends so important to Juniata campus life, the General Activities Committee has coordinated class, club, and student efforts in its organizations of the many campus activities throughout the year. The fall season was highlighted by Homecoming with its "Old West" theme. The Committee also organized the Christmas decorations, J. C. movie nights, All-Class night, Spring Carnival, and the May Day activities. It is the hope that these activities, under the direction of the General Activities Committee added some flavor to our campus life this year.

Social Committee

If a social activity takes place on campus, it usually is the result of the efforts of the Social Activities Committee. This Committee is responsible for the planning and the execution of week-end and week-day events. In the past, it has sponsored formal and informal dances, movies and twirp week. Many times the committee works with the General Activities Committee and other clubs in conjunction with special events. The Committee with the encouragement of Dean Low is looking forward to a year of re-evaluation and improvements in the social calendar.

Underclassmen Committee

The Underclassmen Committee is the organ of the Senate which is responsible for providing a program of orientation for freshman. The committee plans and supervises the period of orientation with responsibility for student-led seminars for freshman, the freshman counseling service, Frosh Help Day, Frosh-Soph Games, Freshman Court, and "Regs."

This past year the Committee attempted to provide the freshman with a sense of class and school spirit, a friendship with fellow students, and a knowledge of the traditions of Juniata through its various programs. Highlights of the program were a car wash performed by freshmen with proceeds going to a town charity, a card-section at football games, and the assignment of defendants of Frosh Court to faculty members as "slaves for a day."

Religious Activities Committee

The significant contributions of this year's Religious Activities Committee have been a Discussion Series based upon the contemporary thought of Bishop John A. T. Robinson's Honest to God, All-College Worships featuring speakers well-informed of the thoughts and questions of college students, and the Wittenburg Door—the site of many a heated debate via the medium of the printed word. The Door also carried a schedule of activities of local churches. The Christmas program, "The Voices of Christmas", featured music and readings by students and faculty. The Thanksgiving Service and the Easter Communion were other services in the traditional Religious Activities Program.

Women's Judicial Board

This board, headed by the Chairman of Women's Government, is responsible for hearing cases of violations of those rules which apply to the conduct of women resident students. There are two representatives from each of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. It counsels with individual students and takes action deemed appropriate when infractions occur. In addition, this year the board spent many extra hours devising a new warning system for minor infractions of dorm and curfew regulations.

Head Residents

The Head Residents include a group of outstanding students employed by the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women to aid in counseling the freshmen. These students are selected on the basis of scholastic standing and citizenship. Their duties, in addition to freshman counseling, include maintaining order on their halls and helping students with problems which may arise.

Women's—Men's Student Government

All women students are members of the Women's Student Government of Juniata College. One branch of this government is Women's House, a legislative body which consists of representatives from each women's dormitory. In each residence hall these girls and the residence director from the Dormitory Council officiate business relevant to the dorm.

Women's House sponsors the annual Fire-lighting Ceremony, skit night for co-eds, the Christmas Banquet, exam teas, refreshments following Chrismtas caroling, dormitory Christmas decorations and many other functions of benefit for the whole student body.

Men's Government is the representative body of the male students, acts in a supervisory capacity in the dorms, and serves as a liaison between the men and the Dean of Men. It is mandated to maintaining quiet hours and the orderliness in the dormitories, correcting problems when complaints are made, taking precautions to protect College property, and supplying minor conveniences for the halls. In addition, each dorm has a judiciary council which hears all minor infractions of rules and decides on punishment.

Touring Choir

The Juniata College Touring Choir, under the direction of Prof. Donald Johnson, is Juniata's musical representative to churches and schools throughout Pennsylvania and bordering states. This year the group made an eleven day tour of Western Pennsylvania and Ohio presenting concerts two or three times a day. The choir's musical program consists of a wide range of songs, from religious to popular. The group also appeared on television and made week-end trips throughout the spring semester.

Convocation Choir

The Convocation Choir is the group responsible for the musical touches and inspirational background of the weekly convocations. The choir is under the direction of Prof. William Merrill. In addition to its weekly religious presentations, the choir also participates in the Christmas pageant and the Commencement Choir. The students of this group practice daily to prepare for convocation. Occasionally, they present a featured anthem.

DR. CALVERT N. ELLIS, President

President of the College since 1943, Calvert N. Ellis has distinguished himself through his wide experiences as traveler, lecturer, teacher, and administrator. Recently elected President of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, Dr. Ellis also represents Juniata on the advisory committee to the State Council on Education and in the Association of American Colleges. Nevertheless, our busy president still finds time to keep a watchful eye on campus trends and student attitudes. Frequent student parleys and interviews exemplify President Ellis' interest in the individual's personal as well as academic development.

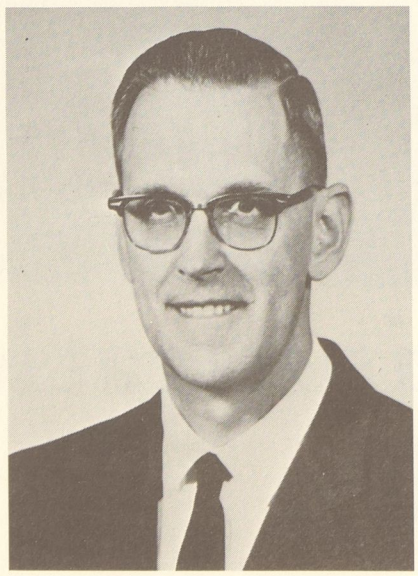

Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean of the College, Morley J. Mays' chief concern is with the heart of the college—the academic life of the students and faculty. He is responsible for the maintenance of academic standards, recommendations of new faculty personnel, and the determination of the course program. Serving this year as Chairman of the Academic Deans of Pennsylvania Colleges and Universities, Dean Mays also aids in our students' application to graduate schools and supervises the Brethren Students Abroad Program for the college.

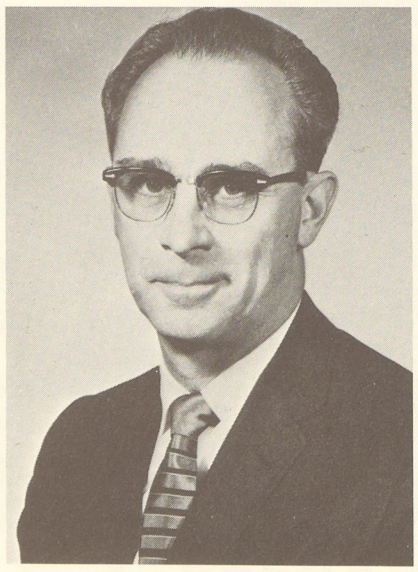

Vice President for Financial Affairs and Treasurer of the College, John T. Fike, heads the Business Administration which embraces the financial, maintenance and auxiliary enterprises, and plant phases of college functioning. Responsible to the President and Board of Trustees, he also aids in recommending the operational budget, supervising the employment of non-academic personnel, and is in charge of the distribution of college funds.

Harold B. Brumbaugh serves as Vice President for Development. With progress and expansion of college facilities as his primary goals, he promotes public relations and is responsible for the development of sources for financial assistance to the college.

CLARE G. LOW, Dean of Women

Having lived, taught, and counseled in 14 states from Mississippi to Massachusetts, Clare G. Low is adequately prepared to provide for the cultural, academic, and social welfare of our women students. A woman of diverse interests and capabilities she advises Women's Student Government, the Student Senate, Campus Judiciary and, with Dean Heberling, coordinates student activities. However, she considers personal guidance her most important service to our women. Her open forums and "walk-in hours" are only two instances of her exceptional interest in the student as an individual and as a friend. As one of the busiest people on campus, our new dean has already become an integral part of Juniata College.

A most competent counselor to Juniata men is Paul M. Heberling. In addition to serving as advisor to the Senate and Campus Judiciary and fulfilling his responsibility to maintain campus and residence hall decorum, Dean Heberling teaches courses in the Department of Sociology. In the midst of this busy schedule he also tends to his post as senior class advisor and is conscientiously attentive to all student problems, illustrating the dean's readiness to guide and counsel. A man of experience, Dean Heberling is held in high regard by all Juniata men.

It is with sorrow that the Class of 1965 remembers two of its late members:

Steve Horn

Vanishing tradition: The diagonal.

In the card-section as "frosh" in '61, the seniors developed the sense of unity which led to their amazing accomplishments throughout their four years.

The History of the Class of 1965

With the arrival of the class of '65, Juniata took on a new atmosphere as the gleam of enlightenment dispersed by these freshmen spread over the campus. One of the first evidences of the new type of class spirit possessed by the '65ers was the famous Freshmen Revolt staged early in the fall of our first year on campus. We were soon to be cowed, though—or so the sophomores thought. Ours was the last class to be put through the rigors of a Gym Initiation; few of our class will ever forget the mud, maple syrup, and command, "Pray for rain, Frosh!" The 65ers were not cowed; our spirit remained unbroken, as soon seen in the Freshmen Class's Homecoming float, DRAG-ON TO VICTORY. The abundance of Kleenex flowers was a reflection of only a fraction of the unique spirit possessed by this class, further demonstrated in the extraordinary panty-raid staged by the Frosh males and our Candy Cane Lane in front of Oller Hall at Christmas time. In the spring came our HISTORY OF WILLIAM TELL, one of the best freshman skits seen at an All-Class Night for a long time, staring Ron Ferraro, Carl Bush, Bruce Davis, Ed Fleck, and Dottie Platukis. However, we had begun to show our dramatic talent before All-Class Night. The cast of The Man Who Came to Dinner included freshmen Bruce Davis, Ed Fleck, Ron Ferraro, Dottie Platukis, Sue Judy, Linda Hinkle, Jess Wright, and Andy Adede, while Nancy Davis, Linda Hinkle and Jess Wright appeared in Once Upon a Mattress. This display of talent was followed by a decisive win over the heavily favored seniors at the Inter-Class track meet. Other aspects of our freshman year deserve mention. Barry Broadwater made the starting line-up, making football history in his 87-yard run against Geneva. Earl Samuel finished first in the first Cross-Country meet of his college career. And three 65ers made the basketball starting line-up, Leroy Mock, Danny Rank, and Tom Wickland. The class officers for our freshman year were Bruce Davis, Jess Wright, Toby Tyson, and Craig Satterlee. Our Freshman queen was Jill Waters and the May Day attendants were Carol Patterson and Sandy Haines. Ours was probably the first and only class to have a live chorus line at our dance, Hawaiian Holliday.

In our sophomore year, under the leadership of officers, Jess Wright, Joe Weaver, Dede Edminston, and John Fair, we originated the Oller Lawn escapade. This was angel-hair year, the year our Homecoming float, KNOWLEDGE IS THE KEY TO THE FUTURE, took second place against "Detwiler Enterprises." Christmas was Frosty-time, as Founder's porch was transformed by Sue Judy and Jim Williams into a walk-in snowman. The Frosty-look was continued in the Christmas Dance, Winter Wonderland, under the guidance of Sally Mayhew. With the arrival of spring, came the Midwinter Formal, "Vertigo," done by Janet Hess, Marsha Shultz, and Jim Richardson. This was the season of the BIG snowball battle, and North and Sherwood's immense snowmen. The 65ers won the Inter-class Track meet again. Leroy Mock and Duane Ruble got their J-jackets early. Dave Rodenbough, Neale Clopper, John Fair, Jess Wright, and Jack Haskell became the nucleus of the tennis team in the spring of the sophomore year. In basketball, the game against Elizabethtown will long be remembered—the game when the Indians beat the Jays 68-67, knocking E-town out of the MAC championships. The track team had a tremendous season; Bill Baker and Earl Samnuel were high scoring men for this 10-1 season. The May Day attendants this year were Diane Heagy and Sandy Haines. Sue Judy and Ralph Colflesh starred in Macbeth, supported by 65ers Nancy Davis, and Jess Wright, while the cast of Finian's Rainbow included Bruce Davis, Sue Judy, Roy Bulkey, Christy Schorsch, Neale Clopper, and Jess Wright. The high point of the sophomore year was All-Class Night when our political satire done around the framework of West Side Story, EAST SIDE STORY, won first place, beginning our 3-year winning streak. This was truly a class production; each hall wrote a song and everyone contributed in some way to the skit. Craig Satterlee, Dean Buckwalter, and Mary Beaver furnished the music, Becky Rininger did the choreography, and Jim Richardson and Marsha Shultz took charge of the fire escape and sets. Lines such as "but you're from the East" and "found your hands in the bread—found out I'm a Red" still echo in our minds. With this accomplishment it was fated that we should go on to win the other two All-Class Nights.

Our Junior year started off with a BANG as our Homecoming float, a 1920 Packard, backfired its way through the Parade to the football field. Dean Buckwalter and Sue Vieth, as chairmen, came through for us again, but we were fated to lose despite our "Brumbaugh for Governor" signs. Our extraordinary ability to create all-but winning entries showed itself again at Christmas time when Jim Williams and his crew transformed Tote into SANTA'S WORKSHOP. Jack Crissman and Tom Gibson's little train, Tom Gibson's jukebox stove and the table packages, plus the elf in the tree outside the entrance all contributed to the effect. All-Class Night this year was an even bigger feather in our hats. THE ROYAL PAWNS centered around the theme of Mardi Gras, was a tragic farce which was based on the moves of a chess game. Ed Fleck, Ron Ferraro, Roy Bulkley, Jim Richardson and Pete Mather's beautifully professional sets, Linda Hinkle and Jess Wright's acting, Terry Blue's lighting, and the efforts of a majority of the rest of the class of 65 secured a perfect score for us to win first place for the second time. May Day was not only "The Splendor That Was Rome," but also splendor for the senior class as Tom Gibson, Dean Buckwalter, Jess Wright, "T" Hansen, and Jim Richardson recreated Rome in Lesher Hall. The eagle, burning torches, carved watermelon boats, murals, Rodendron tree and fountain made May Day truly splendid. This was also the year Ed Fleck appeared in "The Innocents." The inter-class track meet that year was another unique achievement as Earl Samuel and various other members of THE class smashed the other classes with a 50 point victory. The almost entirely junior class tennis team established a 7-4 season. On the diamond, Don Engle was establishing himself as one of the best pitchers Juniata has seen in a long time, becoming the 65ers only 3-letter man. On the track Earl Samuel, Bill Baker, Jim Will, and Craig Satterlee were distinguishing themselves. Linda Shiley, Jackie Morelock, Juanita Williams, Christy Schorsch, Jim Scott, Christine LeFevre, Sue Judy, Becky Plumer, and Ralph Colflesh spent the year studying in and cavorting around Europe. Four juniors were members of the Senate, Tom Gibson, Lois Williams, John Fike, and Craig Satterlee.

The Senior year was THE winning year. Under the leadership of Donna Hunt and Dave Miller, we won first place for our Homecoming Float, THE WAY THE WEST WAS WON. Jim Richardson's car became a train engine with an authentic, 150 lbs. Gold bell on the top, and a borrowed "surrey with the fringe on top" was converted into a covered wagon. Sandy Haines made a big hit as she led her cow between the two-part entry. The float was an example of the way the sciences, i.e., science hall, can contribute to a work of art. Diane Heagy was Homecoming Queen and the senior attendant Mary Beaver. The Christmas decorations contest was the exception to our senior-year-winning-streak. Our CHRISTMAS THROUGH A MOUSE HOLE in Brumbaugh Social Rooms was an outstanding display of the creativeness of our class members. Under the chairmanship of "T" Hansen and Pete Mathers half of Raystown forest was transported into Founders to give a realistic under-the-tree effect. The Nativity According to St. Luke was an almost entirely senior production directed by Jess Wright and including in its cast Gail Davis, John Fair, and Pete Mathers. But the crowning event of our college career came on All-Class Night as we won first place for the third consecutive time, becoming the first class to retire the cup. GOLD-SPINNER, a medieval fantasia based on Rumplestiltskin written by Bruce Davis, Jess Wright, Ed Fleck, Nancy Davis, Jim Will, Jim Richardson, Craig Satterlee, Dottie Platukis, Ron Ferraro, and Sue Vieth, starring Ed Fleck, Ron Ferraro, Bruce Davis, Nancy Davis, Carl Bush, Pam Stevens, Gail Davis, and Sue Judy, followed a group of medieval wheeler-dealers to a (mostly) happy ending. It was a good year for football too. Against some of the strongest teams in the East, seniors Duane Ruble, Barry Broadwater, Don Corle, Ed Fleck, John Lersch, Jeff Treese, and Terry Blue displayed some of the best football seen anywhere on the small college level. Duane Ruble and Barry Broadwater were both named to the ALL-MAC team for their outstanding playing. Earl Samuel, number one track man for four years, took second in the MAC's. Rich Adams in a national archery contest, scored 50 bull's-eyes. Duane Ruble and Tom Paxon were the only seniors on the wrestling team this year. Duane pinned in 9 of the 10 matches this year. Eleven out of thirteen senate offices were held by seniors, Joe Weaver, Andy Adede, Sue Vieth, John Fair, Jack Crissman, Sharon Edgar, Carol Champion, Carl Bush, Lowell Brubaker, Earl Samuel, and Jim Mayhew.

Thus, it was disappointments and victories, excitement and struggle which made us a proud unified class, and helped to make us stronger individuals. The experiences we shared will always be our most cherished "personal reflections" as we look back upon four years of undergraduate life at Juniata College.

In high spirits as juniors, '65ers capture the All-Class Night trophy for the 2nd time.

FIBERGLAS Shapes Tomorrow At The World's Fair Today

When the 1965 edition of the Alfarata is distributed, several million people will have visited the New York World's Fair on Long Island's Flushing Meadows.

And millions more Fair visitors will see combination Fiberglas and plastic materials play a significant part in many buildings, a permanent "Marina of the Future," in transportation vehicles and numerous other applications.

Notable is the American Telephone and Telegraph building, (shown above) the world's largest structure, to be sheathed in Fiberglas-plastic panels. The lightweight Fiberglas material enhances the building's "floating wing" design and unbroken surface appearance.

The New York World's Fair structures incorporate the application of various types of Fiberglas materials produced at the Huntingdon Owens-Corning Plant where more than 800 of your friends and neighbors are doing exciting things with this newest and most versatile form of glass.

Creativity . . .

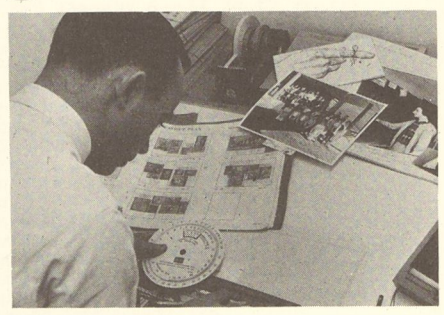

. . . is more than an idea or an inspiration when you have the tools with which to work, and a printer who is qualified and interested

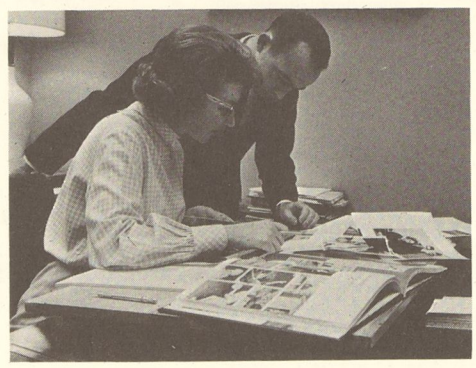

FOOTE & DAVIES offers: 1 Professional consultation and assistance in planning and preparation of your book. 2 A complete supply of materials and equipment for your use in producing a "customized" book. 3 Expert in-plant coordination of your material with personal attention to every detail. 4 Experienced copy prep personnel who help perfect material and proofread your copy as well as your proofs a minimum of four times. 5 Printing craftsmen dedicated to producing a book worthy of the Foote & Davies label which has appeared on fine yearbooks for over 60 years.
